Discussion 6: Governance, Money and the Future

With guest speakers from industry founders, investors, builders & regulators.

Student Benefits

Learn about an emerging industry tailored to the local experiences of living in the Bronx.

Explore job opportunities in the industry.

Connect with industry leaders from the top companies in crypto and expand your network.

A Seminar for the Bronx

This seminar is tailored specifically for the Bronx. Digital currencies have the potential to improve financial inclusion and economic mobility, while lowering the barrier to entrepreneurship. While it is not a silver bullet, crypto is changing the way people think about financial literacy. Students should expect to engage in regular discussions about how cryptocurrency can play a more meaningful role in their communities.
